EXPLORING FAITH AND SPIRITUALITY

A Programme of Open Learning

OPEN LECTURE SERIES 2015-16

IMAGINATIVE ANTICIPATION:
TOWARDS A THEOLOGY OF CARE FOR PEOPLE WITH DEMENTIA

IN ASSOCIATION WITH MHA (METHODIST HOMES)

MONDAY 2ND NOVEMBER 2015
7.30PM—9.00PM

Until very recently, the Church has had little to say about dementia, but if we are serious about God's bias towards those who are in need then this must be address. 'Person-centred care' has become the way good care is described and Margaret will explore how a theology to support this might be developed.

Margaret Goodall is a Methodist minister who works for MHA as Chaplaincy Advisor supporting spirituality and the work of the chaplains. She gained an MTh from Oxford looking at the role of the chaplain in a care home, and is now involved in research into spirituality and dementia. She explored the issues surrounding spirituality in older people and our ministry to them.

Our theological lectures are open to all. They are free of charge to attend, and there is no need to book—just turn up
